

Here are 6 fabulous books I wanted to recommend, Happy Reading!

Atmaja Tonne

Anne of Green Gables

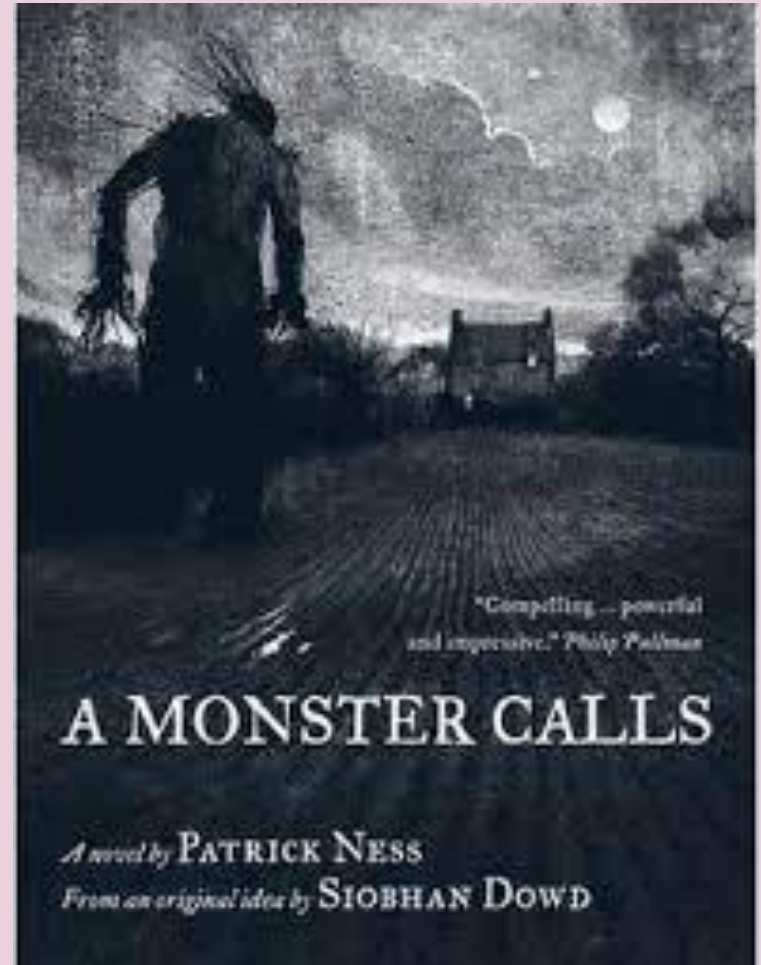

Anne Shirley, an 11-year-old orphan, is mistakenly sent to the home of an elderly brother and sister planning to adopt a boy. After a rocky start, Anne wins them over and grows into a bright, talented young woman who must make a difficult sacrifice to save the home she loves.

A Monster Calls - Patrick Ness

Conor has the same dream every night, ever since his mother first fell ill, ever since she started the treatments that just don't seem to be working. But tonight is different. Tonight, when he wakes up, there's a visitor at his window. It's ancient, elemental, a force of nature. And it wants the most dangerous thing of all from Conor.

It wants the truth.

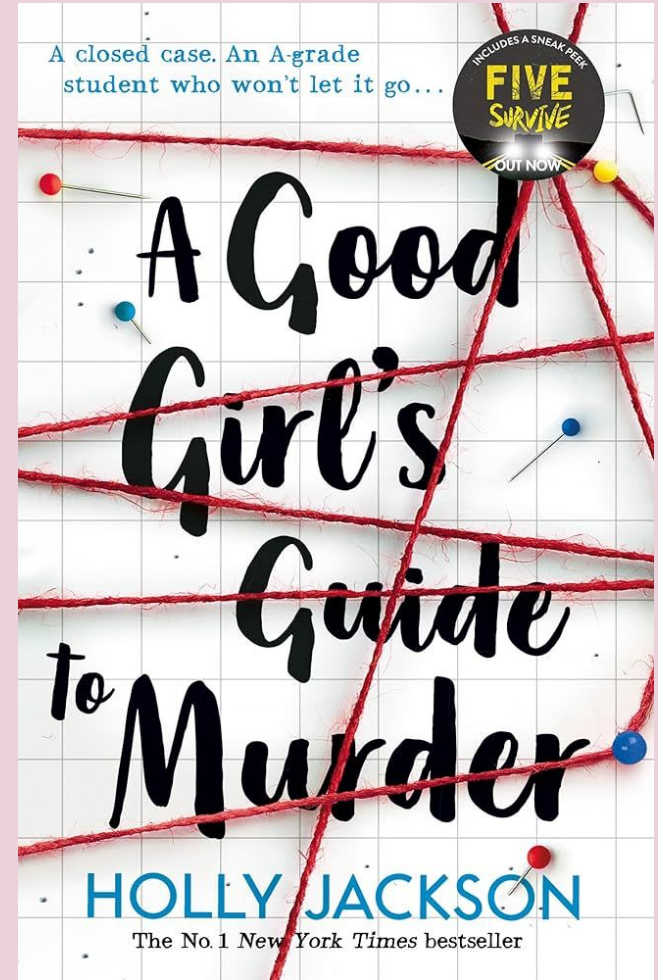

A Good Girl's Guide to Murder

- Holly Jackson

Year 8+

Five years ago, schoolgirl Andie Bell was murdered by Sal Singh. The police know he did it. Everyone in town knows he did it. But having grown up in the same small town that was consumed by the crime, Pippa Fitz-Amobi isn't so sure.

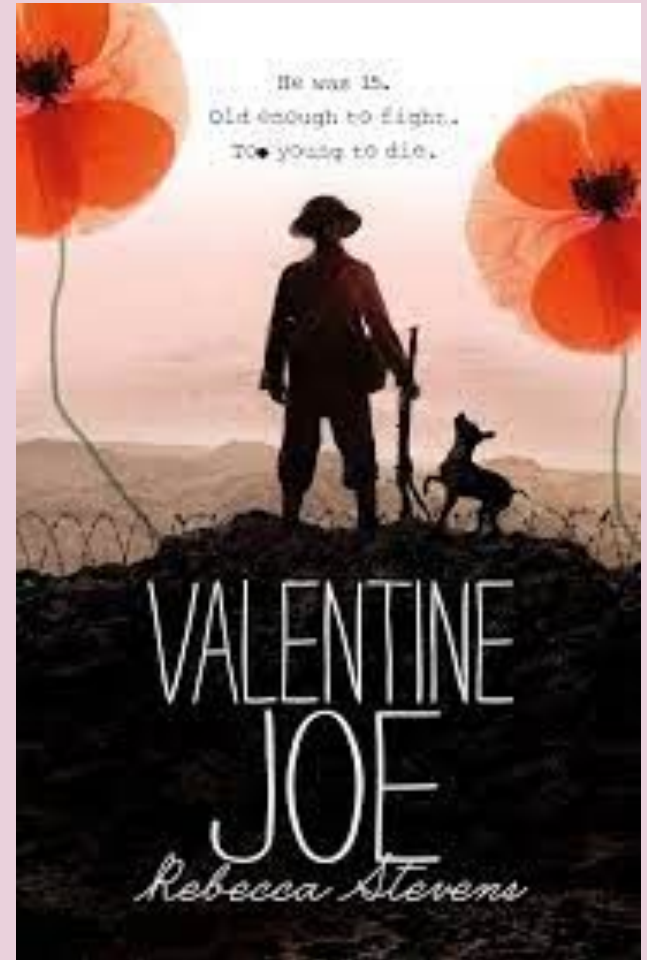

Valentine Joe - Rebecca Stevens

He was 15.

Old enough to fight.

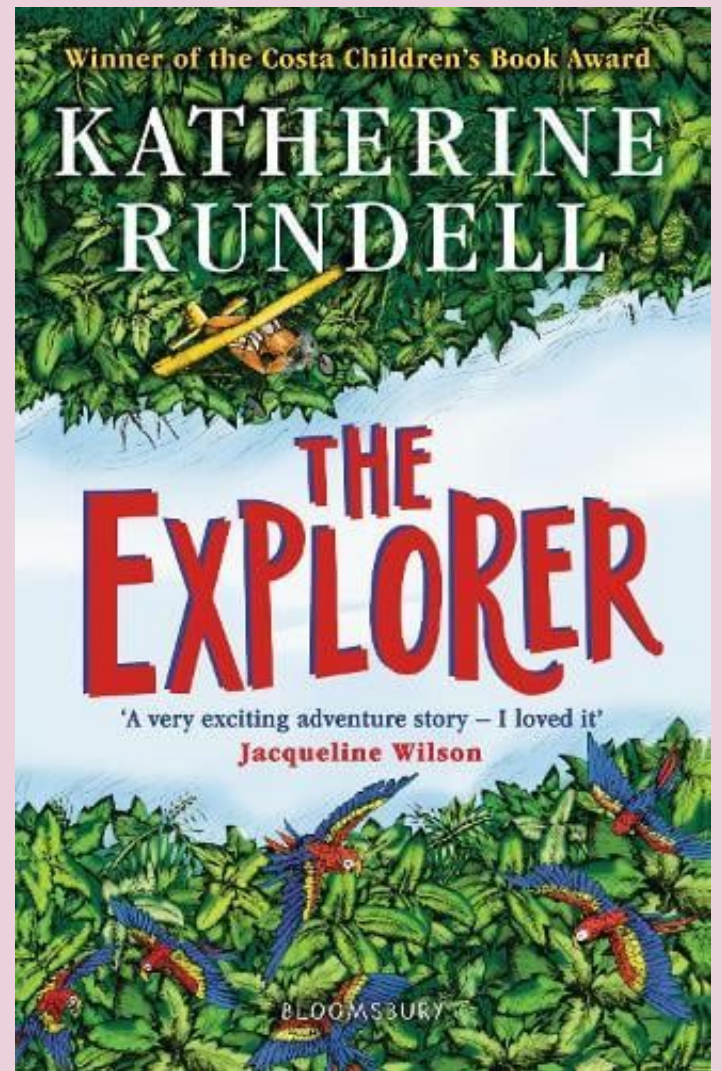

Too young to die.

Rose goes to Ypres in Belgium to visit the graves of those who died in the Great War. There, the name of one boy stays in her mind: Valentine Joe. That night, Rose hears marching and when she looks out of her window, she sees a young soldier...

The Explorer - Katherine Rundell

When their plane crashes, four children are stranded in the Amazon jungle. Now they have to survive alone. But was there someone there before them?

Tsunami Girl - Julian Sedgwick

When fifteen-year-old Yuki Hara Jones and her beloved grandpa are caught in the 2011 Japan Earthquake and Tsunami, her life is changed forever. Beyond the immediate disaster lie even greater challenges, and a journey to a zone between this world and the next.
